South School Flag Raising Ceremonies

A new 50-star American flag was raised Friday with appropriate ceremonies at the South Street School plaza. The flag has flown over our nation's Capitol at Washington, D.C. It was presented to Mrs. John Crawford, principal by PTA President Mrs. Edward Moriarty at the PTA open house program.

Mr. Timothy Collins, Assistant Scout Executive, Pioneer Valley Council Boy Scouts conducted the flag-raising ceremony.

At the ceremonies, held in joint observance of Veterans' Day and National Education Week, Mrs. Moriarty said all the students should be proud of their flag, give it due respect and to work hard in school to help keep the American flag flying free forever.

The Acting Color Guard was Steven Della-Guistina, Cub Scouts; William Bruneau, Boy Scouts; Ann Kazantis, Girl Scouts; Julie Rackliffe, Brownie Girl Scouts. Among the invited were Mr. James Clark, Supt. of Schools; Mrs. John Janik, President of Agawam Council of Parent-Teachers Association, South School PTA officers and members and Scout leaders.

The entire school body, directed by Mrs. Sally Lowell, sang the Star Spangled Banner and God Bless America followed by a trumpet solo by Robert Campbell.

Flag pins were distributed to all attending by the American Legion as a memento of the event.

YMCA Birthday Calendar Listings Extended To Nov. 20

"Everyone should have their birthday or anniversary listed in the Agawam Community YMCA Birthday Calendar." This was the statement made today by James Pease and Paul Adams, Sr., co-chairmen for the "Y" project as they announced that Saturday, Nov. 20th was the deadline for submitting all listings on the calendar.

Last Monday was the original deadline set for receiving listings, but the co-chairmen explained that so many people had expressed an interest in being listed that the date was extended to make sure everyone had ample opportunity to have their names placed on the "Friendship" calendar.

"We wish that we could call on every home in Agawam," said Pease, "but this is almost impossible for our volunteers to accomplish." Over 75 volunteers have been busy for the past three weeks making as many calls as possible. This Saturday, Nov. 20, a large "task force" of volunteers will attempt to cover those areas in Agawam not yet covered by the volunteer workers.

All monies raised by this project will be used to benefit the youth programs of the local YMCA. Anyone wishing to guarantee a listing on the calendar may call the "Y" office, 108 Perry Lane, and a member of Saturday's "task force" will be assigned to call on them.

TODAY'S AGRI-FACT

The Bay State's fall crop of greenhouse tomatoes gets in increasingly short supply as December nears. This is because the vines bear less and less as daylight hours decrease. Despite their comparative scarcity, they are very desirable to those who prefer their all-meat, no-waste, juicy sweet characteristics.

The wise parents postpone planning their summer activities until they find out if their son makes the Little League team.

LEGION AUXILIARY UNIT NEWS

by Virginia Catchepaugh

Operation—Show Your Colors

Mrs. Constance LaMountain, President of Unit No. 185 of the American Legion Auxiliary said that the National Organization of the American Legion has now formulated its plans to demonstrate national solidarity in support of the government's efforts in South Vietnam and to counter the unpatriotic demonstrations being organized by certain elements in the nation.

The American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary members are united in support of the National Commander, L. Eldon James' plan to supply miniature American flags to all Department Headquarters to be distributed and worn by all American citizens who are willing to wear them in demonstration of support of our government's program in Vietnam.

Mrs. LaMountain said that service, fraternal and veterans organizations throughout the country are being invited to participate in this program. The objective is to have millions of American citizens show their support of our country in this hour of crisis. The small American flag on coat lapels—worn from border to border and coast to coast will visibly demonstrate the unity of the American people in support of our President and our national effort.

Christmas Gift Shop

Departments 1, 2 and 3 of the Legion Auxiliary will conduct Christmas Gift Shops at Leeds Hospital on Dec. 1, 2 and 3.

Regular Meeting

The next regular meeting of the Unit will be held Monday, Dec. 6, at the Legion Home.

Last night's meeting of the Agawam Lions Club with speaker Lion Dave Skolnick proved to be very interesting, educational, and provocative. Psychologically speaking, it is now known that "children ARE different," and Mr. Skolnick had a very nice approach. Members with children in school appreciated the points brought out.

Next meeting will be Dec. 1 and the American Legion Home will be the scene of the District Governor's visitation. Gerd Schneider and his cabinet, including one Chairman Nick Zucco, will be guests of the club and the members can be assured that some phase of Lionism will be dwelt upon by the Governor.

Dec. 15 is the date of the annual Christmas Stag Party, and we have assurances from co-chairmen Jim Votsakis and Joe Ferrari that this year will equal if not surpass previous fine programs. It will be held again at the Federal Hill Club, and everyone knows that Nino and Ray serve the ultimate in food.

The Board of Directors meet Monday, Dec. 6, at King Lion Ken Clouse's home, and on the agenda is a review of attendance and dues. Drastic action is being proposed by some of its members and it well could be that the roster will be less by the first of the year.

"Do you think a woman believes you when you tell her she is the first girl you ever loved?"
"Yes, if you're the first liar she has ever met."

HOUSEKEEPING HINTS

LITTLE WORK SAVERS
ALL-ROUND THE HOUSE...
TO KEEP YOU
"FLOWER-FRESH"
ORCHIDS TO THE COOK WHO HEEDS THESE HINTS!

Hard boiled eggs are easier to peel if quickly dipped in cold water after boiling. Then let them drain on paper toweling before peeling.

Perfect poached eggs are easy: add 1 tablespoon white vinegar to the water. Swirl water into a whirlpool before dropping eggs in.

Yolks of eggs, left over from baking, may be dropped into a pan of boiling water to hard cook for use in salads.

To separate the yolk from the white of an egg easily, break the egg into a funnel over a glass. The white will pass through and the yolk will stay in the funnel. Test eggs for freshness like this:
1. A fresh egg sinks in water;
2. The shell should be dull and rough. Color has nothing to do with quality;
3. The contents should not shake back and forth loosely.

When cream won't whip, add the white of an egg to it; chill, then whip.

Cheese soufflé will stay up high if you use quick cooking tapioca instead of flour to thicken the milk base. Use 3 tablespoons to 1 cup of milk for a 3-egg soufflé.

To sour sweet milk, add 2 tablespoons of white vinegar to 1 cup of sweet milk and presto! Sour milk or "buttermilk" for cooking!

For a quick 'n easy frosting, beat one egg white until foamy; add 1 cup sugar, and ½ cup pineapple juice. Whip in electric beater at high speed 7 to 10 minutes or until it stands in peaks.

To keep broiling steaks from curling at the edges, score the fat at 1 inch intervals.

An Agawam Patriot

In the history of the Massachusetts 10th Regiment is this statement:—"When in the fall of 1861 the typhoid fever was decimating the ranks of the 10th at Brightwood (near Washington, D.C.), two ministering angels in human form left their happy northern homes to serve these men in camp. Their stay with the regiment was a blessing from the start, and every soldier, whether well or ill has never failed to sing their praises when the names of Mrs. Solomon Merrick and Miss Helen Wolcott were mentioned."

Of this experience Miss Wolcott wrote many years later:—"In regard to Mrs. Merrick and myself, nurses in the old 10th Regiment, I could tell you more than I can write. It is all very fresh in my mind. The first night we slept on the floor of the tent. The next day the carpenter made up a very good bedstead. I shall never forget how glad the sick men were to see us, as one said "Any one in petticoats?" I fully recall one from Northampton who died very soon, his parents coming at the very last moment. Mrs. Frank Blair, whose home was near, came often to see and care for us."

Helen Wolcott was born on the Springfield Armory grounds Sept. 26, 1826. Her father, a storekeeper at the Armory, later moved the family to West State St. In 1843 he bought a home on Main St., in Agawam Center.

Helen was considered quite a beauty in those days and to this is due the fact that her likeness appears on the Washington Monument. While visiting in New York state she chanced to meet the artist, who was designing a stone the state was giving for the monument. He asked her to pose with 2 other girls for the design, which is now familiar to thousands of visitors in Washington, D. C.

When Miss Wolcott died in Agawam at the age of 85, the funeral service was attended by a delegation and honorary bearers from the 10th Massachusetts Regiment Association who always remembered her help and inspiration during the dark days of the Civil War.

Brownies Complete Undefeated Season

The AA conference champion Agawam Brownies showed their form Saturday as they defeated West Side 32-8. After a sluggish start where both teams had to punt, Agawam broke loose toward the end of the first quarter. Dennis Dudley scored first on a pass from QB Sam Provo.

Leading scorer Billy Polepek scored the points after. The Terriers had possession of the ball for only a few seconds when heads-up quarterback Provo intercepted a West Side pass and carried it in for the TD.

The Brownies struck again early in the second quarter when lineman Bob Wilson grabbed a pass and made it 45 yards for Agawam's third score. Fullback Al Mercadante bulled over from the one yard line for Agawam's fourth touchdown. The score at the half was 26-0. Agawam's final score came in the third quarter on an end run by Sam Provo.

The final quarter saw a lot of substitutions in Agawam's lineup and a total of 40 Agawam players saw some action in the game. West Side's score came after a good drive from their own 30 yard line. End Doug Prowling made the points after.

This marks Agawam's fourth AA Championship since 1957. They won it in '57, '61, '64 and in '65 with an 8-0-0 record, the best in their history.

YMCA Registration For Hockey Saturday

The Agawam Community YMCA will hold the first registration period for boys participating in the "Y's" annual hockey program this Saturday morning, the 20th, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. at the YMCA Outdoor Center Office, 108 Perry Lane. The hockey program, operated for YMCA members, sponsors teams in the Greater Springfield Junior Amateur Hockey League. Games are played at the Eastern States Coliseum Hockey rink on Saturday mornings.

The League accepts teams in three age groups: 11-12 years (Peewee), 13-14 years (Bantams) and 15-16 years (Midgets). Eligibility is determined by birth date and all boys born on or before May 31, 1955 and on or after June 1, 1949 are invited to sign up this Saturday for assignment to a "Y" team.

The YMCA owns and maintains its own rink on the Outdoor Center property and all practice sessions are held at this location. Safety equipment is provided by

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By Bill Chiba

Commissioner Edward F. Kehoe of the Vermont Fish and Game Department expressed in a letter to Vermont hunters common sense rules that would pay hunters everywhere to heed. We quote, "If you hunt in agricultural areas make it a point to ask permission of the landowner if you find he lives nearby. And don't take your rifle to the door when you ask him. This practice can be quite disconcerting."

roadways and seeded areas. If fields are soft, it is plain courtesy and common sense to keep all vehicles off. Make it a practice to drive only on established trails and roads.

"Don't shoot around inhabited buildings... watch out for pets and cattle. Shoot only at selected game, and don't target shoot as you go. Don't carry loaded weapons in automobiles and don't shoot across highways. WEAR BRIGHT CLOTHING. Vandals and trash-tramps are never welcome... they are the spoilers."

"In conclusion, it may all be summed up in one word, 'THINK.' Would you like someone acting like YOU hunting on your land if you were the OWNER? Keep these points in mind while you hunt and enjoy yourself—safely."

"Sportsmen are made, often self-made, not born. Residents, as well as non-residents, have a choice to be one or not. Be a sportsman... and good hunting."

Hunter Safety Training Pays Off

On Oct. 24, Philip Morneau and his 16-year-old son, Charles, were bird hunting in the Cedar Pond area of Milan N. H., they became separated! When darkness fell and the boy hadn't come out of the woods, the worried father called Conservation Officer Arthur Muise. Muise walked into the area about 1½ miles on an old logging road, shouting for the youth. He heard a reply and shots. Following the shots, the officer found the boy, secured for the night.

Charlie admitted he had become lost. When he found an old abandoned logging camp he made himself a bed in a feed trough in the stable and prepared to spend the night. When commended by Officer Muise for the way he had handled the situation, Charlie said he had learned what to do in the hunter safety course he had taken.

Although primarily designed to train youngsters between 16 and 19 in the proper handling of firearms before they may purchase a hunting license, the course also teaches them such things as their responsibility as hunters, land-owner-sportsman relations and, as proved so valuable to Charlie, woods survival.

Local Rifle Champ

LARRY PROVOST

Larry Provost, 17, of Garden St., Feeding Hills, Junior Rifle Champion of Agawam, has done it again by topping 79 Junior target shooters from five states recently at a Junior Gallery championship held recently at Hopkinton, Mass. Larry shot a score of 382 x 400, enough to win from runner-up who shot a 381.

Larry is a member of the Agawam Junior Rifle Club and has been shooting for three years. During this time he has attained the highest rating under the National Rifle Association Junior program, that of Distinguished Rifleman. He has also won many other awards in matches throughout New England as a member of the club team.

The club, under the supervision of Agawam Sportsmen's Club, is directed by Edmund Gleason of Feeding Hills. The Junior members in the past 18 years have gathered over 500 trophies and medals as individuals and team members.

SQUARE DANCE

By Beryl and Doug Shaylor

This Friday evening, Nov. 19, area square dancers will have one of their rare opportunities to dance to a nationally famous caller. "That man with the guitar" is recording star Dick Leger of Warren, R. I.

Dick has been active in the square dance field for over 14 years. His trademark is his guitar, which he uses to accompany himself on singing calls.

Dick's philosophy on relaxed square dancing is known throughout the country. He is often asked to give lectures in various areas on timing and smooth dancing. He also has classes in basic calling methods for those who are interested in learning to call as well as classes for new square dancers.

His most recent recordings include "Swanee River," "Sweetheart of Venezuela" and "I Walk the Line." Dick is the regular caller for the Rhody Merry Makers of Rhode Island.

Tickets for this dance are available from any member of the Promenader's Executive Committee or will be available at the door Friday night at Robinson Park School, Begley St.

Last Friday night a large turnout of members and guests welcomed guest caller Eddie Vieira of New Bedford, Mass. Eddie treated us to an evening of fun and fast moving dancing. We thoroughly enjoyed having Eddie's wife, Lydia, with us also.

Our Refreshment Committee, headed by Charlie and Irene Cavanaugh, surprised us with a special treat — hot gingerbread with whipped cream—thoroughly enjoyed by all.
